

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, No one is quite sure where Adelia Fischer Goeman gets all the energy to participate in her many activities. Is there something exotic in the blood sausage she concocts? Where does this lovely, busy lady get all her spunk? and,

WHEREAS, While most people would be content to plunk down 59 cents for a bar of Dial, Adelia takes pleasure in making her own soap. But that is not all she makes. Have you ever tasted her delicious potato bologna? And the things she makes with her hands and some thread are remarkable: she weaves rugs, she makes quilts, she crochets, she tats; and,

WHEREAS, Adelia and her husband, John, had two children, John and Janice; and these two kids have blessed the Goeman clan with five grandchildren and one great-grandson to date. Adelia, when she is not busy with her other hobbies, loves to get together with her grandchildren. She entertains them and they entertain her and everybody has a great time; and,

WHEREAS, Adelia Fischer Goeman was named Mrs. Prairie Village a while back, and it was one of the proudest moments of her life. No one could get her to give back the crown until she was sure everyone had had their picture taken with this vivacious Prairie Village Queen; and,

WHEREAS, The biggest news to date is the birthday celebration being held for Adelia on Saturday, April 2, 1983, at St. John's Lutheran Church. Friends, family and neighbors alike will be there to wish Adelia a happy 80th birthday and to say, "You're great and we're all glad to know you!":

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 31, 1983, as in South Dakota.

ATTEST:

Alice Kumbert
ALICE KUMBERT, SECRETARY OF STATE

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-eighth Day of February, In the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Three
